Two Sergeants Of British Army Found Hanged

Soldier-Hostages Hanged In Reprisal By Jewish Underground In Palestine

WERE KIDNAPED NINETEEN DAYS AGO (BULLETIN)

JERUSALEM, July 30.—(INS)—The Jewish underground organization Irgun Zvai Leumi announced today the reprisal hanging of two British army sergeants but official Palestine sources withheld confirmation that the bodies have been found. Irgun said the two men were killed in retaliation for the execution of three young Jewish extremists condemned for their part in the Acre bomb blast and jail break in May.

Eye-witness reports said the bodies were found strung up on a tree near Nathanya. But officialdom remained silent.

JERUSALEM, July 30.—(INS)—Two British soldier-hostages were hanged today by Jewish underground in reprisal for the execution yesterday of three convicted extremists.

Bodies of the two sergeants were discovered shortly before noon, within two and one-half miles of Nathanya where they had been kidnapped 19 days ago by the militant underground group, Irgun Zvai Leumi.

According to an Irgun announcement published in Hebrew newspapers, the two soldiers—Sgt. Mervin Paine and Clifford Martin—had been condemned by an Irgunist military court.

Cause of Hangings
Their deaths were ordained because they served in the British Army Intelligence Corps, rather than in retaliation for yesterday's triple-execution, Irgun said.

At the same time, the Irgunists warned that additional reprisals will

A Butler avenue parking lot resembled a bus men's convention on Tuesday afternoon. The large lot harbored at least a dozen of the brand new vehicles being driven to larger Eastern cities.

Hedge cutting on some properties at strategic traffic intersections in the city, would be an excellent safety measure. In some instances motorists must drive into the carway of the intersecting street before they can see if other vehicles are approaching.

The bubble gum chewing fad is gaining momentum even among the older "young people" of the city. It is not uncommon to see some of the youngsters mothers attempting to create "bubbles." In many cases strong soap or even lamp oil are resorted to remove the evidences from the face.

What has happened to the individuals who used to make tin foil saving their hobby? Before the war, some sizable balls of tin foil had been collected. During the war, the hobby had to be discontinued due to a shortage of the material.

From the looks of scrap yards that dot the outskirts of the city, many of the new model cars fold up just about as easily as their older brothers and sisters. Many of the car bodies are wrecked beyond salvage with the mechanical parts the only things left intact.

Herter Named To Head Probers Going To Europe

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(INS)—A disciple of former President Hoover today took over active charge of an overseas investigation by a special house committee whose decision may determine the fate of the Marshall plan.

A Paris-born congressman, Rep. Herter (R) Mass., was named executive head of the group, which will leave New York Aug. 27 to study economic requirements of Europe's war-devastated countries.

Rep. Eaton (R) N. J., who is 79, placed the former Hoover aide in charge of the trip overseas, which will be made by 18 members representing 16 of the regular house committees. Eaton, chairman of the group, announced he would be unable to make the trip.

Herter said a staff of experts is already busy studying the task facing the committee, which will break up into small groups after reaching London and investigate conditions in Britain, The Ruhr, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Trieste and Greece. The committee will return Oct. 9 and prepare its report for the next session.

Herter sponsored the resolution creating the special committee, whose members were named by Speaker Martin (R) Mass. He was executive secretary in 1920 of the European relief council which, under Hoover's leadership, dispensed relief overseas. From 1921 to 1924 he was personal assistant to Hoover when the latter was secretary of commerce.

The President had nominated J. Copeland Gray, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Abe Murdock, of Utah, as members of the board and Robert N. Denham, of Maryland, as counselor. Congress failed to act on the nominations before recessing.

Earth Movement Threatening Town

WELCH, W. Va., July 30.—(INS)—Here's one geologists can't figure out.

A slow earth movement beneath southern West Virginia coal mining city, is threatening property valued at several million dollars.

The movement began several months ago, and appears to be quickening. It already has put cracks in nine buildings, including the Welch post office.

No coal has been mined under the city, charts reveal. Geologists believe there possibly may be an underground stream causing the movement.

Dutch Troops Mopping Up In Wider Areas

BATAVIA, July 26.—(INS)—Dutch troops widened their mopping-up operations in north central Java and northern Sumatra today while dispute continued over responsibility for crash of a twin-engine plane near Jogjakarta.

The Indonesian Republic government claimed the craft was shot down by Dutch fighters, resulting in the death of nine persons including three British citizens. The Republicans insisted the ship was carrying medical supplies.

Dutch fliers concerned with the incident said there were indications ammunition was carried but they denied having shot the plane down, saying it crashed into a tree after a "warning volley" had been fired.

U. S. Will Seek To End Fighting In East Indies

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(INS)—Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett, made it clear today that the United States is preparing to take further steps to bring about a settlement of the fighting in Indonesia.

Lovett told a news conference that the State Department has been in consultation with a number of governments on steps that might be taken and prove practical or effective.

He declined to name the governments being consulted and said that he obviously could not state what steps were under consultation. For the moment, Lovett said, the United States is standing on the State Department statement of July 21 expounding that negotiations between the Dutch and the Indonesian government had broken down.

Lovett also made it clear that American action would be contingent on whether or not the Indonesian case is brought before the United Nations Security Council, a step which India has said it will take.

COLUMBUS, O., July 30.—(INS)—More than 1,000 Ohio Republicans will gather in Columbus tomorrow to launch that "Taft for President" drive.

Representing Taft in final plans being drawn up by Republican State Chairman Fred Johnson were his secretary, Jack Martin; Paul Walter, a Cleveland lawyer who has been working with Taft in Washington; and Taft's publicity man William McAdams.

Labor Party Lines Up In Support Of Attlee

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, July 30.—Parliamentary members of the labor party lined up in support of Prime Minister Attlee today after he gave them a full and frank statement of British economic difficulties and his government's plans to overcome them.

The vote of confidence was given Attlee at a secret meeting of the Labor MPs in parliament's largest committee room, which was jam-packed.

A statement issued after the two-and-one-half-hour meeting said

Attlee's statement was welcomed and approved, and that the party members "expressed complete satisfaction."

They "assured him of the united support of the parliamentary Labor party in all measures which the government thinks necessary to take."

In addition to Attlee, chancellor of the exchequer spoke. Whereas the prime minister gave a broad outline of matters Dalton provided a detailed review of the current situation and of a statement to be made next week in Commons.

New Castle Men In Conference On Plant Purchase

(Special To The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—In an effort to have the plant occupied in New Castle during the war by the Aluminum Company of America, disposed of to private interests, the War Assets Administration today met with two citizens of New Castle.

Mayor John F. Haven and Captain Roger W. Rowland met with W. G. Gumbel, of the Real Property Division and discussed the offer of five New Castle citizens for the property.

United States Senator Edward Martin arranged the conference between Mayor Haven, Captain Rowland and Mr. Gumbel. No final decision was made upon the disposal of the plant but it was said after the meeting that progress had been made. A further meeting will be held sometime next week.

The plan for multiple tenancy of the big plant seems to be favored now, either by the New Castle men's proposal or by government arrangement.

Steady improvement is being made daily by the New Castle Duntile Company, holder of the contract for rebuilding three and one-half miles of new concrete three and four lane road on Route 18 from Walmo in Neshannock township to the intersection of the Sharon-West Middlesex road. The news photographs above the 142 foot concrete arch that is being constructed almost midway on the one mile stretch of relocated road near the New Castle Country Club. The inset shows the route of the old highway with its dangerous curve, with the broken line revealing the site of the new road to be built. Atlantic Avenue Work Completed

Route Widened And Resurfaced—Prepare To Start South Jefferson St.

RESURFACING AT WAMPUM STARTS

Atlantic avenue from West Washington street to Mahoning avenue, has been completely resurfaced and widened by the Kelly-Meyer Company of Youngstown.

Previous to the resurfacing project, a 22 inch concrete base was laid on either side of the road and the resurfacing material covered the entire road surface when poured. The work gives to the city a much improved traffic artery to the seventh ward and assists in the smoother flow of traffic to Wampum and the valley cities.

Wampum Road Project
The road leading from Wampum to Ellwood City, is being resurfaced for some distance by the same contracting firm that worked on the Atlantic avenue job. One way traffic is being maintained at points on this road and will be until the completion of the work.

South Jefferson street is being prepared for the resurfacing project that will be started there in a short time. Depression in the street are now being filled and other preliminary work is being undertaken. As soon as the Wampum-Ellwood work is completed, the machinery will be moved to the South Jefferson street site. Resurfacing will be undertaken from the Diamond to West Long avenue.

Other current road work being done in the county, includes, King's Chapel road resurfacing; Route 18 in Neshannock township, Route 422 to the Ohio line; and patchwork being done in Hickory Township.

MAN IS SLAIN IN COURTROOM

Shot Down By Constable After Slashing Wife During Hearing

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 30.—(INS)—Mrs. Ida Mae Bourbonnais was reported recovering today from cuts inflicted by her husband seconds before he was shot and killed in an Oklahoma City courtroom.

The husband, J. J. Bourbonnais, 40, was killed by Constable Cecil Barker when he rushed at his wife and slashed her on the abdomen and left hand during a peace bond hearing in the courtroom of Justice of the Peace Otis James.

The hearing was conducted on the complaint of Betty Jo Bourbonnais, the victim's daughter, who charged that her father burned her mother's face with a cigarette. James had just certified Bourbonnais to the district court when the attack occurred.

Soviet Action Blocks Balkan Peace Efforts

EAST AND WEST SPLIT IS WIDENED

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.,
July 30.—Security council delegates took advantage of a 24-hour postponement today to consult their home governments on the Russian rejection of the American plan for a U. N. "watch-dog" commission on the Greek borders.

Soviet delegate Andrei Gromyko, who stunned the council with his 11th veto, had been scheduled to address the council this afternoon to explain the reasons behind his negative decision, but at a late hour last night, the session was deferred until Thursday.

Shocked At Veto
The 11-nation body, shocked and to a noticeable extent bitterly resentful of the damage inflicted on U. N. prestige by the Soviet veto, will meet at 3 p. m. Thursday to consider Gromyko's resolution blaming Greece for all the Balkan strife.

U. S. representative Herschel V. Johnson already has condemned the Russian measure and said that the United States can only take a negative attitude on it. The mood of most of the other delegates forebodes a quick rejection of the resolution.

Chairman Oscar Lange of Poland, however, has indicated that he will place a resolution of his own on the Balkan dispute before the council.

A majority of delegates conducted important consultations with their governments and may reveal new conclusions at the security council tomorrow afternoon.

New Situation
The Russian veto was regarded by western delegates as having precipitated a new situation in the United Nations, with various spokesmen

"RISK WAR OR STOP TALKING"

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(INS)—Sen. Malone (R) Nev., declared today that the American people must decide whether they are willing to risk war with Russia with an ultimatum to halt government-grabs in Europe—or "stop talking about it."

At the same time Malone proposed that the government abandon its efforts to rehabilitate the non-Communist world by international gifts and leave that task to private investors.

The time for school is creeping up and youngsters greet each day with knowledge that the opening bell is not so far away. Another month of freedom's thrills, another month of fun, and then a few more passing days, vacation time is done. They seem to think the calendar has slipped away too fast, and ere they start their summer sports, vacation's days are past. And here's July that's almost gone, although the weather's fine, it means that school is not so far away—the weather's eighty-nine.

Increasing numbers of so called "vest pocket" radios are appearing on the streets of the city, carried by swing music fans, Pa News observes. The miniature sets have become inseparable companions of the young people. Bus riders are frequently entertained by the music as they are enroute to town.

With the appearance of more home grown vegetables on local tables, garbage collectors are hauling heavier loads of discarded greens in the city. Watermelon rinds are causing considerable added weight to garbage pails, too. Corn husks will soon add to the collector's woes.

Seen going through the city along Washington street shortly after noon was a caravan of six large new motor buses bound east apparently to be put into service at various eastern points. The destination tag read "No passengers."

Another entry in the hollyhock sweepstakes is submitted by Frank Dudas, of Cottage street, who says that just across the street along Rebecca Way there is one 10 feet 2 inches tall.

Another new stamp commemorating the Utah Centennial has been placed on sale at the downtown post office. The stamp depicts a covered wagon with some cattle and carries the notation, "This is the place" denoting the spot where Mormonism got its start.

From the Harry Kretzer farm, near Ten Hall, comes a report of an excellent wheat yield this year. Thrashing yesterday, the wheat raised on four and a half acres of land, it was found that the yield was 184 1/2 bushels, which is exceptional. The wheat was on the Thorn variety.

Autoists traversing South Jefferson street and Moravia street in the next week or so will run into resurfacing operations. Preliminary work is already in progress on the job, which will extend from the public square to Long avenue.

Snow fences were erected along the route of the soap box derby in Ellwood City to keep the crowd off the running track, Pa News notes.

State Highway department workmen were engaged on Tuesday afternoon in oiling Clemons boulevard in Neshannock township.

be forthcoming in pursuance of their threat that "British blood shall flow freely."

Irgun had warned that the execution at dawn yesterday of three convicted Extremists would be the signal for unleashing an "immediate offensive" which would bathe Palestine with British blood.

In Irgun Faction
The Extremists—Meir Nakar, Jacob Weiss Absalom Habib—all were members of the militant Irgun faction of the Palestine underground. They had been convicted of helping to engineer the May 4 attack on Acre prison, in which some 250 Arab and Jewish prisoners escaped.

Word that the first two reprisals had been carried out came shortly after Haganah, underground arm of the Jewish agency which has opposed Irgunist retaliation, joined the search for the missing sergeants.

The triple-execution occurred barely three hours after the Jewish underground, in an unsuccessful effort to liberate the doomed Irgunists, attacked the prison.

Britain Shocked

LONDON, July 30.—(INS)—Britain was shocked today by the reprisal hangings in Palestine of two British sergeants.

The London Evening News editorially deplored what it termed "this dreadful deed." The Jewish agency issued a statement condemning the executions.

suggesting that the "split" between east and west had become a fact and would make itself evident in the "toughening" attitude between the two factions in the immediate future at Lake Success.

United States sources for the moment refrained from disclosing "the alternative" in mind on grappling with the Balkan situation. Johnson claimed, however, that the United States had no intention of dropping the issue and soon would undertake a new move in the security council.

Diplomatic sources are convinced that the Greek issue, in one form or another, will be placed into the general assembly next September. A strong likelihood is that in the meantime, the Greek government will invite the nine members who supported the American plan to maintain a group of "observers" on the northern frontiers in order to gather facts for the case before the general assembly.

The exercise of the veto by Russia to shield her satellites Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria—branded as guilty of trouble-makers against Greece in the Balkan commission's report—also is expected to give impetus to a new campaign to abrogate the veto privilege now enjoyed by the Big Five powers in the security council.

A two-thirds vote in the general assembly is necessary to effect such a change in the charter.

The President returned to Washington shortly after 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon following funeral services for his mother Monday.

The chief executive was accompanied by members of his staff who flew to Missouri with his Saturday on word that Mrs. Truman was dying, together with Mexico's Ambassador Don Antonio Espinosa de los Monteros, who flew to Kansas City to convey personally to the President the sympathies of Mexico's President Miguel Aleman.

May Go To Brazil

The White House gave no word still on the status of the contemplated trip that would take the President to Rio de Janeiro during the latter part of August or early September to pay a state visit and attend the Inter-American Conference on hemispheric defense.

The President has not abandoned plans for going to Brazil. However, no actual arrangements have yet been made.

The chief executive, if the trip is made, probably will fly either to Key West, Fla., or San Juan, Puerto Rico, and then board the Battleship Missouri for the rest of the trip to the Brazilian capital.

This plan is flexible and there is a possibility that the President may fly both to and from Rio.

There also is no absolute certainty yet that he will undertake the trip, although he is very anxious to do so.

Arrest Three In Sharon Robbery

SHARON, Pa., July 30.—(INS)—A quick-thinking young lady today was credited with the capture of three suspects in a $927 robbery of the Sharon Western Union office last night.

The officers arrived as the bandit car pulled away, but were able to get the license number before it was lost in traffic.

Washington Calling

Congressmen Take Look At Situation

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Returning congressmen will now be able to take their own Gallup poll of opinion back home. If they get the same result as Dr. Gallup it should be a severe jolt to Republican self-confidence.

The latest poll shows that 55 percent of the Gallup cross-section prefer the Democrats to the Republicans. Even more striking, 51 percent of those questioned would vote for President Truman over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. Ten percent expressed no opinion, and the outcome of a contest between the two men would probably be decided by that bloc.

How much this means one year in advance of the presidential campaign is another question. Nevertheless, the Republicans cannot laugh off the way in which their stock has dropped since last November. The tendency is always to discount the poll-taking method when the news is adverse. Yet it has proved to be a measuring rod of trends and opinions.

In three election campaigns, the psychology of the Republican was to attack the errors of the party in power. The theme has been: turn the rascals out.

Some Achievement

While the 80th congress can point to certain legislative achievements, this same theme song has dominated the talk and the headlines out of the first session of this congress. Chiefly on the score of spending, the Republicans have constantly attacked the Truman administration.

The Republican managers must now ask themselves whether this is enough. To win the support of the independent voters who decide presidential elections, a party must offer more than the Republicans have offered to date. They must offer a positive alternative to what we all

CLOTHES FOR WEDDING GUESTS

Question: What clothes should a guest wear at an afternoon wedding and an evening wedding?

Answer: A street-length dress, hat and gloves to the afternoon wedding whether it is formal or informal. If the evening wedding is to be informal, you may wear a street-length dress, hat and gloves to both the ceremony and the reception. If it is to be formal, and you are to sit "in the ribbons" and go later to the reception, you should wear evening clothes or at least a dinner dress and wrap. If you are merely going to witness the ceremony (not going to the reception) and not "sitting in the ribbons" you may wear street clothes, if you wish.

Question: When does the bride throw her bouquet and who stands in the group to receive it?

Answer: On her way upstairs to change to her traveling clothes she throws her bouquet over the railing. Her attendants stand in a group at the foot of the stairs. At some weddings all the single girls stand in the group. Whoever catches it is supposed to be the next bride.

Question: Are guests obliged to bring gifts when they attend a housewarming?

Answer: There is no obligation to do so, but guests usually do bring something for the new home.

Question: Is it always essential that a girl have an announcement before wearing her engagement ring?

Answer: If she intends to have an announcement party, it should occur before she wears her ring in public. Otherwise, everyone will know it and the party will be unnecessary.

The Modern Pied Piper

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

GAINING EMOTIONAL CONTROL

We can control emotions in ourselves and others, certainly modify them, as we can control attention in ourselves and in them. It is possible, indeed, for us to discipline ourselves as not to dwell on what we know we should not but to shift our attention to what is more profitable.

You go to visit a friend just bereft of a loved one and if you refer to that loved one you may bring tears or grievous weeping to the friend. Being wise, you hardly would make such a reference. But on sensing what had happened, how quickly the signs of grief subside as you shift the conversation and that person's attention.

The Same Principle

This principle may operate in relation to any strong emotion. Many are the times I recall when Mrs. Myers, by choosing the apt positive suggestion would dissipate a powerful storm of anger that was obviously brewing, or a state of discouragement or sulking that was hovering over the child of ten or sixteen.

The most stupid nursemaid has hit on this principle as she calls to the attention of the crying or resistant youngster a year or two of age an approaching dog or something else. But her device may soon prove ineffective, even increase the child's anger, if she fails to name the thing that will do the trick. Worse still, she may shout the name of some animal or object which isn't there at all. After being fooled a few times the youngster may ignore the appeal or become more vexed. Even some mothers will drift into such untruthful, silly ways. See, moreover, how they have lessened their effectiveness in controlling the child's attention.

On the other hand, there is a strong human urge in us to be vexed at the child who is angry (at no matter what) and to further his sulkingness. Even with one's spouse one is prone to err in this direction. When he or she is angry (or irritated at no matter what) we incline to grow likewise and express anger in our ways or words of voice. Yet this is the very time when we should be most self-controlled, most loving, if you please.

Of course, we can't hope always to do so and say the thing which will make the child feel happiest at the moment. We can't hope always to dispel his anger by positive suggestion, else we never would say "No" or "Don't", or having said it, we would immediately reverse ourselves. We would make no denials to the child of two or sixteen. That would immediately dispel any anger he might have had over our delay at saying "Yes". In many matters of discipline, positive suggestions would be impracticable. Yet there is a broad rich field in which they are very desirable. Few of us use them enough when we should.

Used houses account for three-fourths of the annual residential sales in the United States.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON: Defense Secretary Forrestal, in praising unification of the armed forces, "These will be no immediate, miraculous results. But in the long run it will be efficient and economical and we will get the most out of our defense money."

VATICAN CITY: Pope Pius XII, in voicing concern over nuclearization, "At this moment, relationship between employers and employees is menaced, and every day brings about an inexorable separation. The danger of such a state becoming dominated by economic forces—to the detriment of the general welfare—is exactly as grave as if it should be dominated by the pressure of capitalism."

WASHINGTON: Sen. Smith (R) N. J. head of the committee to investigate the "Voice of America" program: "It is a great responsibility, when we speak of the 'Voice of America' to find out who is qualified to be the Voice of America. We want to protect the prerogative of the President and Secretary of State foreign policy. This cannot be entrusted to bright young men without authority."

HANOVER, Germany: Social Democratic Leader Dr. Kurt Schumacher: "We are ready to help reconstruct France but not at the cost of the ruin of the German economy."

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

Millions of words have been written about the engagement of Princess Elizabeth to young Lieutenant Mountbatten, and millions more will have been written by the time they are married and on their honeymoon.

All of England is talking about the wedding. Newspaper polls are being conducted. What kind of a wedding shall it be? Shall it be in the tradition of British royal luxury and pomp or in keeping with the precarious condition of the empire?

When I read all the stuff about the Princess and her future spouse, I can't help but recall an item I read in my newspaper the other day.

It was about a double wedding in the Tonga Islands in the South Seas. Crown Prince Tupoutoai was taking as his bride Halavali Mata Alonoe, daughter of Chief Ahoeve, Governor of Haapai Island; and Prince Fatafehi Tubelaha was marrying Melient Veikune daughter, of Inoke Veikune, chief of Tonkatabu Island.

The celebration lasted a whole week and more than 40,000 Samoans, Fijians and Europeans attended. There was wine, beer, champagne and great varieties of rich food. There was music and dancing and fireworks and great rejoicing in the palm-fringed shelters specially erected for the occasion.

I also recalled many of the accounts about American society weddings I had read, where fathers spent fortunes on the affairs, where many thousands of dollars worth of gifts were presented to the couples—and where divorces ensued a few years later.

But I also recalled something else.

WHAT SAITH THE BIBLE?

Communists, Socialists and those whose ideas closely approximate the ideas of either the Communists or Socialists, talk in loud tones about the profit system and assert that it is un-Christian, a moral and economic evil. The Christian churches possess among their members a great many of these people. Particularly, too many preachers in the churches talk about this profit evil.

I believe the best answer to any professing Christian who has these ideas is the Parable of the Unprofitable Servant, contained in the Gospel of Saint Matthew, chapter 25, verses 14 to 30. I quote it here: "For the Kingdom of Heaven is as a man traveling into a far country who called his own servants and delivered unto them his goods."

"And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey."

"Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents."

"And likewise, he that had received two, he also gained other two."

"But he that had received one went and digged in the earth and hid his lord's money."

"After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them."

"And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliver unto me five talents; behold, I have gained beside them five talents."

"His Lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few talents, I will make thee ruler over many: come thou into the joy of thy Lord."

SKILLFUL WALKING

Animals learn to walk very quickly and easily. They do not seem to have much trouble about it. Babies sometimes have a hard time learning to walk. It seems to be a difficult job.

Thousands of years ago our ancestors probably walked on all fours. As man began to walk upright walking became a different proposition. Walking is not a simple proposition as it seems.

We are precious possessions. We have only one pair to last a lifetime. They should be treated gently. They should not be pounded or stamped down like a pile driver. Footsteps should be light and almost soundless.

One look at Grandma's feet may tell a lot of history.

Hints On Etiquette

Relatives and intimate friends of both families are invited to a simple home wedding, but no casual acquaintances. In securing invitations for this type of wedding, the bride and her parents must take into consideration the size of the reception or living room where the ceremony is to be performed, and the number of people that can be comfortably accommodated.

Inside Washington

Dewey and Halleck Ticket Or Taft and Martin Team?
Bradley Now Seen Certain As Army's Chief-of-Staff
Prosperity Built on Borrowing Perplexes

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, July 30.—A behind-the-scenes friendly rivalry in the House is brewing a potent GOP political beverage that perhaps will not be tested until the Republican national convention in Philadelphia next June.

The principals are Speaker Joe Martin, amiable, hard-working gentleman from Massachusetts, and House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck, the Gentleman from Indiana.

Martin is regarded as "atomic" vice-presidential material should the GOP presidential nomination fall to Ohio's Senator Robert A. Taft. Halleck is regarded as much more than a possibility should the Republicans renominate New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

The geographical factor rules out any possibility of Martin, the New Englander, being a running mate for Dewey, the New Yorker, or Halleck, the Midwesterner, being a running mate for Taft, the Midwesterner.

Halleck has two favorites to overcome if Dewey is nominated. Oddly enough, one of these is Harold E. Stassen, who has conferred with Dewey and would accept vice-presidential place on the ticket with Dewey.

The Capital
Dewey is California's Gov. Earl Warren. He is Dewey's choice if Dewey is nominated and Warren will take second place.

BRADLEY PROMOTION—High military officials in Washington now regard it as certain that Gen. Omar Bradley will become the Army's chief of staff when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower leaves the War department for the presidency of Columbia university.

The recent appointment of Lt. Gen. J. Lawton (Lightning Joe) Collins as deputy chief of staff gives rise to speculation that he, not Bradley, was the man most likely to succeed Eisenhower.

This was said to have been disturbing to Bradley, who, when he took the unpleasant, irksome and generally thankless post as veterans administrator, was promised "something better" as soon as his VA mission was accomplished.

The military powers-that-be acted quickly to soothe Bradley's ruffled feelings. He was invited to make an "inspection tour" of Europe, a trip that could have no possible connection with his VA duties.

The European trip, Bradley was informed, was arranged so he could gain first-hand familiarity with occupation problems in preparation for his assumption of the Army's top spot when Eisenhower departs for Columbia's Ivy-covered halls.

Bradley is one of the most popular officers ever to wear the uniform and not only American but Allied military experts regard him as a master of strategy, tactics and administration.

STORM WARNINGS—The American Federation of Labor is becoming worried about the extent of United States loans abroad and ever-expanding consumer credit at home. It frankly declares in a recent economic survey that the "cheerful news from the business front today obscures what is actually happening."

The AFL maintains that lasting prosperity, "with high levels of employment and production," depends on a huge demand for industry's products, and then asserts: "Such demand must be supported by something more than loans to nations abroad and to consumers at home."

The survey showed, the AFL said, that during 1947 almost half of the 19 billion dollars worth of exports the United States can send abroad will be paid for by United States loans to foreign countries.

In addition, the survey indicated, American consumers in the first half of the year have borrowed three billion dollars more than last year to pay for their purchases. The AFL said this was a 44 percent increase.

The labor organization attacked the trend toward more borrowing capacity and declared that "we cannot go on indefinitely building prosperity on more and more borrowing."

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Disclosure by a high Allied official in Vienna that the Soviet high command is having trouble with Russian soldiers who are learning the ways of western culture and therefore balk at returning to the gloomy steppes brought to light today a deep provocative situation.

The Soviets are known to have faced this problem for a long time and apparently are encountering grave difficulties.

Russians Rotated

At the time of the original Allied occupation when Austria was divided into four zones of control, Russian soldiers were rotated on a three-month basis.

It was believed generally that the Soviet occupation forces purposely were chosen from the uncultivated western "luxuries," while commanding officer were of a thoroughly indoctrinated class impervious to western "corruption."

But a three-month rotation is an expensive proposition as well as being an unwieldy one.

Refuse To Return

Yet it now appears that by abandoning it, the Russians chose the greater of two evils for many hundreds of occupational troops are refusing to return home and even committing suicide in preference.

The Russian occupational soldier is under the strictest possible military and political control. He cannot under any circumstances marry an Austrian or a German girl.

Upon returning to Russia, he must surrender at the frontier all clothing, furs and jewelry obtained by barter or other means while abroad.

He must not allow himself to be misled into believing or much less saying that living and working conditions west of the Soviet border are better than those at home.

Reported Mass Desertions

The reported mass desertions, the suicides and the frontier seizures coupled with other known facts lend considerable emphasis to the likelihood that the Russian people are being kept in complete ignorance of democratic affairs.

From the official Soviet point of view this doubling is essential. But how long it can be successful is problematical. The use of initiative under trying conditions, such as desertion from the Soviet Army which must be a herculean task if there ever was one, has a way of widening constantly like the concentric ripples of a stone hurled into a pool.

The Russians have kept huge occupational forces abroad and they virtually admit these men, by living off the land, ease considerably the drain up food and consumer goods at home.

As such they are a double asset. But should a double asset become even half a liability, almost anything could happen.

One citizen says he cannot understand why so much is being made of the Russian's untouchables. He has a banker who is the same way—Wichita Eagle.

In a 70-year life a Kansas resident of Kansas has about one chance in 5,000 of being killed by a tornado.

The British have received a note from Afghanistan. Wonder who they will get to read it for them?

Fr. Stancelewski Speaks To Lions

Splendid Talk On Subject Of Bigotry Given By Pastor Of Sts. Philip And James

Rev. Father V. V. Stancelewski, pastor of Sts. Philip and James church, gave a most interesting talk on the subject of bigotry at the weekly noon luncheon meeting of the club in The Castleton, Tuesday noon.

Rev. Stancelewski stated that bigotry is not confined to any one race, faith, or political party. There are bigots in the Catholic denomination as well as in the Protestant, or in other faiths. We are frequently startled, he stated, by men in high places, who through over-zealousness, overstep the bounds of propriety.

Everyone can be bigoted, and often, most of us are at some time or other. We must be ashamed of them all, he stated.

The same technique is used where hatred is stirred up by one class against another, and the same stories and propaganda is used that was used centuries ago. There seems to be nothing new in the methods of the bigot. While some factual basis is required, a great amount of falsehood is blended with a small amount of truth.

There are two nationally circulated magazines now issued in the United States which are stirring up class and racial hatred. Sometimes those behind the movement seek to tie the Catholic in with the Jews in their campaigns, and sometimes they seek to separate them.

In conclusion, Rev. Stancelewski gave a series of rules of conduct by which we should govern ourselves in these matters. If we live honestly, with prayer in our hearts, there can be no bigotry, he stated.

C. S. Brenner, of Butler, was a guest of the club.

The largest form of the fox squirrel is the black squirrel which is very dark in color but always has white nose and ears. Its habitat is the South Atlantic and Gulf states.

STOLEN SAFE—MONEY SAFE
HAMTRAMCK, Mich. (INS)—The "hunch" of Walter Chaplow, Hamtramck lumber and hardware dealer, was a lucky one. On an impulse, he carried home the day's receipts instead of locking them in the safe over the week end as was his usual custom. Police called him out of bed early in the morning to report that thieves had carted away the empty safe.

While quantity orders for military planes have slowed considerably since V-J Day, the aircraft industry has unveiled 26 new military models.

Sydney May Be Key Naval Base

Australian Port May Supplant Obsolescent Singapore As British Stronghold

LONDON—(INS)—Because Singapore is now regarded as obsolescent in changed conditions of world power, Sydney, Australia, is being considered as its successor as Britain's major naval base in the Pacific and Far East.

Final decision has not yet been reached, neither has Australia's acceptance been made, but discussions are proceeding on a high level between Australia and Great Britain. Plans are now being considered by the Australian Defense Council. Without doubt, say the experts, Australia, will be responsible for the new Commonwealth defensive scheme in the Pacific, and therefore Australia's navy will be proportionately larger and more formidable. It is envisaged that the British naval contribution to the Pacific maritime defense will be a few aircraft carriers around the fifteen thousand ton limit.

Both Australian and Royal Navies would be based on Sydney and as a team would be responsible for the security of the Southern Pacific, leaving the USA and Canadian navies to be responsible for the Northern Pacific.

The first authentic example of a planned city is the Egyptian city of Kahum, built as a housing project for the men who worked on the Illahun pyramid.

Dear Harry:

If you're planning to build your new home this year, be sure you have an adequate wiring plan. It's smart to include a proper service entrance, enough circuits, and plenty of outlets to fill your present and future needs.

Sincerely,
Reddy Kilowatt

Changing Route On King's Chapel Road

Historic old King's Chapel road, which for years and years has been traversed by farmers and other travelers on their road to Pulaski, will soon be sporting a nice smooth surface through the efforts of the maintenance department of the Lawrence County Department of Highways. Pictured above is the cut on the road being made in an effort to make the road straighter. The work involves one of the major projects undertaken by the local highway department for 1947. It is reported by Alfred Martin, county superintendent. The entire project, which runs by the famed King's Chapel church, involves a distance of 6.66 miles. As each section is completed, the road will be opened to local traffic.

a few things. I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

"He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliverst unto me two talents; behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

"His lord said unto him: Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

"Then he which had received the one talent came and said: Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

"And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth; lo, there thou hast that is thine.

"His lord answered and said unto him: Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

"Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

"Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath ten talents.

For unto everyone that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

"And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Examination For Clerks To Be Held

Announcement of an examination for appointment to the position of clerk, with salaries ranging from $1,756 to $2,168 per year, has been made by the director of the Third Civil Service zone for appointments in New Castle.

There are no experience or training requirements, but the age limit is from 18 to 62 years. Examination will be waived for those entitled to veteran's preference.

Further information can be secured from Miss Garnet Rhodes, local secretary, at the New Castle Post Office.

ready have and not merely a negative attack. In the midst of a crucial contest with the Soviet Union, "economy" is not enough.

After twelve years in power, the Republicans were at a low point in 1932. Herbert Hoover was at the bottom of the pit to which the economic crisis had consigned him. It is difficult to realize, looking back on it, how deeply he was scorned by millions of Americans, who blamed him for their troubles.

Yet in that campaign year, Franklin Roosevelt, a masterful politician, stumped the country with a positive program. He wasted almost no time attacking his opposition.

Long Reign
The Democrats will have held the executive branch of the government for sixteen years. They held both the executive and legislative branches for almost fourteen years.

That is a long time under our two-party system. Millions of Americans would like to see a change in the national administration. But I am more and more convinced that they will not trade something—no matter how doubtful they may be about that "something"—for nothing.

I am not speaking here of the loud noises made by pressure groups, such as organized labor, that may have been antagonized by the 80th congress. It is the opinion of the voter in the independent bracket that counts, and this is the voter who looks for something more than negativism. For this voter the Taft-Hartley act is not a program. It is merely one measure and a dubious one. Army-navy unification is a matter of long overdue governmental housekeeping.

This is almost enough to explain the recent trend in the Gallup polls. The Republicans must somehow magnetize the interest and affections of the five to ten million voters who are not tied to either party.

Stassen Independent
In my opinion, Harold Stassen is the Republican candidate who would be most likely to attract the independent. His chances for the nomination appear, at the present writing, to be small. Gov. Dewey shines in Albany as an efficient, able executive. On the road, in his somewhat farcical "non-political tour" of the west, he seems to want to be all things to all men.

The trend toward change is strong. But the GOP cannot count on this alone. One-party domination over a long period of time has occurred in this country before. From 1868 to 1912, the Republicans held the presidential office with the exceptions of the two terms of Grover Cleveland. The Republican Presidents in those years were not all first-rate men. But regardless of the man, the party seemed to fit the mood of the country as the Democrats floundered in conflict and irresolution. That could happen again.

Fourth Picnic Of Shriners To Be Held Thursday

New Wilmington Community Park
Will Be Setting Of Festivities
For Lawrence Caravan

Lawrence Caravan of the Syria Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S., will have its fourth annual picnic for members and their families at the New Wilmington Community Park, just across the street from Westminster college, on Thursday. The event promises to be one of the most outstanding in the history of the caravan.

Ill. Potentate Clarence Head, with members of his Divan and Ladies, from Pittsburgh, will be present on the occasion. An appetizing menu is being planned by the committee, with plenty of baked Virginia ham, ice cream, cake, coffee and plenty of cold camel's milk for all who attend.

There will also be an elaborate sports program and some fine entertainment. Among the prizes which will go to the lucky boy or girl, will be a fine new bicycle. President "Fibber" McGee will be ceremonial master, and Ralph Montgomery is general chairman of the committee, with James Elmore as the official Tail Twister.

Those who need transportation have been asked to come to the Cathedral, from whence the last cars will leave at 6 o'clock.

On August 1, the following day, the grand family picnic for all members of the Syria Temple Pamphily will take place at Kenneywood Park in Pittsburgh, with some wonderful entertainment, dancing and many other features.

Seek Termination Of 'Petrol Pool' In Great Britain

Poor Grade Of Gasoline Hurting
Automobile Industry Claim

LONDON.—(INS)—British automobile manufacturers are urgently asking the government to abandon the "pool petrol" system in Britain because, they contend, the poor quality of pool gasoline is seriously hindering automobile production.

Most new cars coming off British assembly lines are designed to run on pre-war grades of gasoline, with an octane rating of about 80.

'Pool Rating' — 71
The octane rating of pool gasoline is only 71, which accounts now for so much "pinking" when acceleration is demanded. No brand of gasoline, with its higher octane rating is allowed in Britain.

The government, since early in the war, has controlled the buying and distribution of gasoline. As a war-time measure only one type or kind of gasoline, known as pool petrol, was distributed for use in motor vehicles.

What British manufacturers fear most is American competition in the export market.

American Cars Redesigned
American car engines are being redesigned in order to take full advantage of new fuels with an octane value approaching 100.

Auto Accident Injures Four On Ellwood Road

Car Overturns Near Lawrence
County Home On Tuesday Afternoon

Four persons sustained injuries when the car of Dominick Manzo, 32, of 1201 Crescent avenue, Ellwood City, overturned near the County Home on the Ellwood City road at 3:25 p. m. yesterday. Manzo was held by state police on a charge of driving while drunk, pleaded not guilty, and will be given a hearing today before Squire H. M. Reynolds, Union township.

The Injured:
Charles Rindas, 30, Ellwood City, R. D. 7; possible back sprain.
Albert Kosko, 30, Ellwood City, R. D. 7; wrenched back.
Dominick Manzo, driver, severe lacerations of right hand.

All were treated in the Jameson Memorial hospital then discharged. According to Manzo's story to the state police, he was driving around a curve near the County Home, en route to Ellwood City when a car forced him off the road. His car regained the road, but ran to the opposite side of the highway then upset against an embankment.

PILOTS COMPLETE FLIGHT TRAINING

Penn Aero Service at the New Castle Airport reported today that two more pilots have completed their flight training at the airport. Jerry Coyne of West Washington street extension has completed his solo flight, while Joe Lump of Youngstown, O., has completed his cross country flight. He flew to Erie, Cleveland and return.

Amen Jacobs of Long avenue was taken ill in an East Washington street restaurant at noon and was removed in an ambulance to the New Castle hospital.

Accepts Call To Mercer Churches

DuBois, July 30.—Rev. John C. Klingensmith, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church and dean of the ministers of DuBois, will end a 23-year pastorate on August 31 to accept a call to Mercer.

During his service here, Rev. Klingensmith has taken an active part in civic affairs, and the DuBois Ministerial Association.

In his new position, Rev. Klingensmith will have charge of the Good Hope Lutheran church in Shenango, and the St. John's Lutheran church between Greenville and Mercer. St. John's was established by Lutheran and Reformed congregations in 1837 and, for more than 100 years, the two congregations have been using the same church, each holding services on alternating Sundays.

Women's Reserve Of Navy Is Five Years Old Today

NEW YORK, July 30.—(INS)—Congratulatory messages from Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and Admirals William P. Blandy and Louis Denfield, commanders in chief in the Atlantic and Pacific, respectively, today marked the fifth anniversary of the women's reserve of the navy.

Chief of Naval Operations Nimitz's message said:

"The Waves made possible the release of more than 50,000 men for duty afloat and overseas during World War II, accounting for enough personnel to man completely a major naval task force."

Admiral Blandy's message read:

"The splendid services rendered by the Waves in naval activities ashore and their uncomplaining spirit at all times will never be forgotten by a grateful navy."

Admiral Denfield said:

"Were it not for the Waves, the Pacific fleet, hampered as it has been by the demobilization, would have felt the personnel shortages much more acutely."

Hughes Charges Attempt Was Made To Coerce Him

LOS ANGELES, July 30.—(INS)—Howard Hughes charged today that Senator Owen D. Brewster offered to call off his investigation of Hughes' wartime contracts if the millionaire aircraft designer agreed to merge TWA (Trans World Air Lines) with Juan Trippe's Pan-American Airways.

Hughes demanded that Brewster give the public the facts concerning his "abortive attempt to intimidate and coerce me."

The proposed deal was urged by Brewster at a private luncheon which the Maine Senator arranged at the Mayflower hotel, Washington, in February, 1947, Hughes said.

Hughes declared:

"I demand that Senator Brewster stop beating around the bush and give the public the facts concerning his abortive attempt to intimidate and coerce me by offering to call off this investigation of my airplane projects if I would agree to merge TWA (Trans World Air Line) with Juan Trippe's Pan-American Airways."

Charge Youth With Setting Three Fires

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 30.—(INS)—Kenneth Gray, 17, a produce clerk, was charged today with setting three fires, including a $150,000 supermarket blaze on July 17.

Police said Gray admitted igniting his home and causing two blazes at the Food Fair in Atlantic City because he "just got an urge to see a fire."

The youth was arrested on suspicion when detectives learned he had been employed at the market on the day of the fire. Police said he broke down after three hours questioning.

Gray became a hero by restoring a number of residents at the Oxford apartment house in Ventnor where he worked as an elevator operator.

Jones Called To Tell White House Orders On Hughes

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(INS)—Jesse Jones, former federal loan administrator, was called today to tell the Brewster committee what orders he received from the White House in 1942 to finance the still unfinished Hughes-Kaiser flying boat.

The multi-millionaire Texan, whom the late President Roosevelt dismissed to name Henry A. Wallace as commerce secretary, was reported by committee sources as anxious to explain his position in the financing of Howard Hughes' government plane contract.

It was understood that Jones will testify that he acted on instruction from the White House when he offered that Hughes and Henry J. Kaiser be given eighteen million dollars of government funds to build three experimental cargo planes opposed by War Production board officials and the armed forces.

State Capitol

Board Members
May Be NamedGovernor Expected To Name
State Liquor Board Member SoonOTHER NEWS OF
STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, July 30.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff's criticism of some county courts for tax enforcement of the state liquor code pointed up the likelihood that a new member would be named to fill a vacancy on the board which has existed since William S. Rial died in July, 1941. Rial's term expired officially in 1945. Speculation at the capitol followed a fixed pattern. It was assumed Gov. Duff would select someone representing Eastern Pennsylvania to fill the $10,000 a year post. Chairman Frederick T. Gelder hails from Forest City in Susquehanna county while member Charles C. McGovern lives at Pittsburgh.

Governor Duff was believed to be the states' first chief executive to criticize the judiciary for lax enforcement. His statement was prompted by the practice of 26 courts in overruling the liquor board when it refused club applicants licenses because the license quota in the municipality had been exceeded. Similarly, some courts have refused to sustain the board's revocations. Only defendants cited by the board have the right of appeal. The board has been denied that privilege in the 14-year-old liquor code. Legislation which would have given the board the right of appeal died with the 1947 session of the General Assembly.

The governor laughingly denied predictions that he would be forced to summon a special session of the assembly in January, 1949. He said he expected to hear such predictions frequently during the next year or so but emphasized that only an emergency would force a special session.

No politics was behind the Public Utility Commission's suspension of operating privileges held by 160 truck firms which failed to substitute vehicle insurance for policies held by the Keystone Casualty Co., of Pittsburgh, now in receivership. The commission told the truckers to replace their policies but few heeded the warning. Under the law, the commission had no recourse but to suspend privileges until insurance was properly held. Reports circulated confidently in the insurance department indicate the receivership could have been avoided if former Commissioner Gregg Neel had acted promptly.

Association will meet at Harrisburg this week to map opposition to the campaign being waged by the drys. The organization is interested in protecting and policing the multi-million dollar industry and preventing a return to the lawlessness and turpitude which marked prohibition. The association has circulated most of the petitions for local option elections in the counties. Prohibitionists have been moderately successful in drying up large areas of Pennsylvania but inspection reveals the political sub-divisions involved are mostly in rural areas. Dry forces never have enjoyed much success in populated centers.

England Short
Of New AutosNew Car But A Dream To Average
Englishman Due To Extremely High Prices

LONDON.—(INS)—To the average Englishman a new automobile is but a dream to pass on to the next generation.

Due to extremely high prices and high operating costs the automobile owner of today is almost invariably a man in the higher-income brackets, or someone who is able to run his aged, prewar car.

Money Not Only Snag
Money is not the only snag to obtaining a new car. After two years of peace, the waiting period for delivery of a new model is still between two and four years.

New cars roll from English factories at the rate of about 22 thousand a month, but nearly half go overseas as exports. A goodly portion of those allocated to the home market are purchased by government departments. So big are the dealer's waiting lists that it will probably be three years before cars can again be bought from stock.

English roads are busy enough but a high proportion of the cars seen on them are ailing veterans which need constant coaxing and repair to be kept running.

Content With Rationing
The lucky owner of a car still has to contend with gasoline rationing, scarcity of tires, expensive repair and maintenance, a taxation that makes restricted mileage travel a costly luxury, and costly garaging.

Shortages of steel and fuel have cut automobile production and upon future allocations will depend future production.

Artist Combines
Realism, FantasyChildren's Books Illustrator Uses
Combination To Reach
Right Effect

GREENSBORO, N. C.—(INS)—Primrose Robertson, widely-known illustrator of children's books, known in Greensboro as Mrs. Stewart Robertson, is one artist who has become adept at mixing realism and fantasy.

Mrs. Robertson, a native of Raleigh, N. C., says modern children demand a little of both. Recently when she was commissioned to illustrate an edition of Little Red Riding Hood, she amended the story to conform with modern kids' ideas.

Never Accept Story
For example, today's youngsters would never accept the scene of the big bad wolf swallowing grandma whole. So Mrs. Robertson had Grandma "girt up her nightie and make her jet-propelled way to the safety of a nearby closet."

Primrose, or Mrs. Robertson, began her career when she illustrated a jacket for Dr. Lodwick Hartley's book, on Rev. Laurence Sterne, author of "Tristram Shandy".

The pert design caught the attention of Hendrick Willem Van Loon, famous author of "The Story of Mankind". He began to correspond with the mysterious Primrose and soon she was visiting him and Mrs. Van Loon in New York.

Met Artist Agent
She met an artist agent through them and was soon on her way to fame and fortune.

Now re-settled in North Carolina, Mrs. Robertson is writing and illustrating a book called "Hattie the House Mouse".

It's all about a mouse, who lived in Raleigh in the gay '90's.

MARYKNOLL SCHOOL
MOLINA, Chile.—(INS)—A revolutionary step in the vineyard country of Chile is being launched by a young priest from the Boston Archdiocese. Father James McNiff, pastor of the Maryknoll parish in Molina, Father McNiff is inaugurating an agricultural-industrial school for Catholic youths of the poorer classes. He hopes the technical training will give them a better living, and the moral training will act as a leaven in the country district.

CARS GET THEIR BEARINGS
PHILADELPHIA.—(INS)—S. K. F. Industries and the American Car & Foundry Co. have announced development of a new anti-friction bearing for use on the first 100 new cars in the New York subway system. The bearings are designed to give subway cars the same starting and rolling qualities found in trans-continental luxury trains.

ALAMOSA, Colo.—(INS)—Initial excavation of a Folsom site in the San Luis valley is another step in the attempt to unfold the story of ancient man in America.

The excavation, in the eastern part of the valley, will be directed by Frederick C. Worman, associate professor of anthropology at Adams State college at Alamosa.

board of land commission granted permission to make the work a project of the department of archaeology of Adams State.

Workman said the excavation should bring to the light additional information on the Folsom complex.

Site Divided Into Blocks
The site has been divided into blocks. Trenching and sand screening will begin soon at the large pit lying on Zapata ranch near the foot of the Sangre de Cristo range and east of the Dry Lake's area.

The area was a camping site of the ancient Folsom man, who came into the valley from the outside to hunt the now extinct bison. The early hunters found a paradise ten thousand years ago when suitable conditions prevailed in the valley, and animals were plentiful.

First evidence of the Folsom hunter appeared in 1926, near the town of Folsom, N. M. J. D. Figgins, of the Colorado Museum of Natural History, conducted research in subsequent years, and established man's presence in this hemisphere at a much earlier time than previously estimated.

lari, a long extinct ancestor of the modern bison.

Other Folsom Sites Found

A few other Folsom sites have been found, including the famous Lindemeyer site near Fort Collins, and the Clovis site and Sandia cave in New Mexico.

The San Luis valley location is the first to be established on the eastern side of the mountains, and some valuable and excellent artifacts have already been removed by local workers.

Five skeletons of an extinct species of bison have been unearthed.

The site was first found to be at Folsom by a group of Colorado archeologists, and was reported by Dr. C. T. Hurst of Western State college, after he examined it in 1941.

The first flag officer of the navy to meet death in World War II was Rear Admiral Isaac Campbell Kidd. When the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor, he courageously directed the action of his flagship Arizona, until she was destroyed by magazine explosions and a direct bomb hit on the bridge, resulting in his death.

Senator Martin Makes Plea For Training Plan

Universal Military Training Strongly Supported By Pennsylvania Senator

OMAHA, Neb., July 30.—(INS)—U. S. Sen. Edward Martin (R) Pa., today coupled a plea for universal military training with a prediction the United Nations would be successful.

In an address during the annual convention of the Nebraska Department of the American Legion at Omaha, Martin said America should organize the peace loving nations of the world into a solid front should the UN fail.

He pointed out that Communist criticism of universal training in America while remaining silent on the Russian army was a danger sign.

Screaming Reason
"To me," he told delegates, "that silence is a screaming reason for universal training in the United States."

Martin scouted international politics and forecast success for the UN "if given a fair chance."

"We should do all we can to assure its success," he said. "Too many lives, too much property, too much happiness and even our whole existence as free men are at stake."

"But if the UN does not work, if its path continues to be strewn with lobby traps and vetoes so that it cannot succeed then it is our job to assert our leadership in another fashion."

"We should organize the peace loving nations of the world in a force so powerful and so strongly united for righteousness and love of God that no aggressor will dare challenge our freedom."

Trained Men Needed
Martin told veterans of two world wars that trained men were needed to protect the nation's freedom and emphasized that he had little regard for "push button" warfare if manpower was unavailable.

"Closely linked to military preparedness is financial soundness," he declared. "That is necessary if we are to remain strong and a beacon of freedom to the peoples of the world."

In 1929, each individual's share of the federal tax burden was $27 while today it amounted to $286, he said.

"Even Uncle Sam does not have a bottomless pocket," Martin asserted. "Even he can go broke. I urge you to preach to the nation the need for maintaining our financial stability and of reducing the cost of government."

"Keeping America solvent is more than just words. It is the basic duty of every real American. But in a special sense this job belongs to us. We have a sacred obligation to our disabled comrades and to the widows and children of those who died in service. One of the Legion's cardinal principles is to assure their care."

"Anything which might undermine our solvency is automatically a threat to the funds of these people."

Martin warned Legionnaires and other veterans organizations to evaluate demands upon the public pocketbook so as to escape being labeled "pressure groups."

He said ex-servicemen who had escaped the horrors of war unscathed were limited in their demands upon government although the country was indebted to them. "Every now and then I run into veterans whose whole mission in life appears to be to see how much they can get from Congress or from their state," Martin asserted. "Fortunately, they are in a small minority."

He warned that demands of greedy veterans ultimately would deprive disabled veterans, widows and orphans of deceased servicemen. Martin said veterans had "done well" during the 80th session of Congress.

He stated:

Have Done Well
"They have won the right to cash terminal leave bonds September 1. They have gotten additional insurance rights. There will be more automobiles for the disabled. Disabled veterans who are taking vocational rehabilitation training will receive increased allowances and a revolving loan fund of three million dollars has been created to help these disabled veterans."

"The institutional farm training program for veterans has been established as full time training. Veterans preference has been extended to widowed mothers of veterans of World Wars I and II, providing increased employment opportunities."

"Retired enlisted men and officers employed by veterans organizations have been granted the right to present claims before the Veterans administration. Many other advantages have been granted to the veterans, but time will not permit enumeration of them all."

The "Lost and Found" column of a Navy Seabee battalion newspaper in the Pacific during the war offered a reward for a Japanese big trophy of one of the mates. However, in this case the reward was offered not for the instrument's recovery but for its disappearance. Complained the men who inserted the notice: the owner practiced too much!

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent urination passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Senator White Plans To Keep Majority Post

Maine Congressman Discounts Rumors He Will Give Up Senate Leadership

By FRANK B. ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Senator White (R) Maine, said Tuesday that he intends to retain his Senate majority leadership next session.

White labeled as "all bark" the persistent rumors that he is considering relinquishing his post next January. He said:

"Those stories are all bunk. I have no intention of stepping out." White's statement came in the midst of reports that the 69-year-old Maine veteran has been displeased frequently—and recently—over the dominant role that Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, and others high in the GOP councils have played in directing the affairs of the session that ended Sunday morning.

Even within several hours of adjournment, one colleague said, there was a clash between White and others over the wording of the resolution. Earlier he had been quoted by colleagues as voicing threats of quitting on several occasions.

The terms of the majority leader and other party officers carry over through the second session of the 80th Congress. Thus, there will be no election unless White quits the post.

Should White resign, it might throw the situation back to where it was last January, when his acceptance of the leadership headed off a contest that was shaping up between Taft and Sen. Wherry (R) Neb.

The Nebraska Republican got the job of whip and "assistant majority leader" and worked vigorously at the job of being the assistant leader, taking over the floor responsibility frequently and energetically.

One leading Republican forecast that if White does step out, a showdown might be avoided by allowing Wherry to take over the job in his capacity of assistant leader, particularly if the vacancy occurred after the next session was already under way.

To his colleagues Wherry makes no secret of wanting the leadership. They are convinced that he will make an active fight for it any time the job is open—ever if Taft, acknowledged as the party leader, decided he wanted to take over himself.

POLIO CASES REPORTED
HARRISBURG, July 30.—(INS)—Fifty-one cases of infantile paralysis have been reported in Pennsylvania since January 1, it was announced today by the State Health department.

Infections have been recorded in 25 of the state's 67 counties; 20 cases were registered since the beginning of July.

Dr. William D. Schrack, epidemiologist, said the state should be able to determine by the end of the month "whether 1947 will be a severe or moderate year for poliomyelitis." The peak usually is reached by mid-September.

It is predicted that mosquitoes will appear two weeks earlier this year in the New York area.

Neal Announces For Treasurer

Deputy County Treasurer Is Candidate For Republican Primary Nomination

DON I. NEAL

In a statement today, Don I. Neal, of Hickory township, present deputy county treasurer announces himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for county treasurer at the primary election, September 9. His statement follows:

"For nearly eight years I have served as deputy county treasurer. Prior to that time I spent seven years as a bank teller, which means that for fifteen years I have been engaged in financial work.

"The county treasurer is the receiver and custodian of all county tax moneys. Through his hands passes every dollar assessed by the county against the citizens of this county. His duties are rigidly prescribed by law and he must be bonded to secure the county against possible loss.

To the county treasurer's office come taxpayers constantly seeking aid or information on tax statements, receipts, valuations, licenses and many other matters in which they are interested. It is the treasurer's business first to have the information accurately and secondly to see to it that his staff meets the public courteously.

During the present regime a plan of streamlining the delinquent tax department was inaugurated to the end that taxpayers may get the information they seek with a minimum of delay. The plan as projected is a good one. If nominated and elected it is my plan to bring it to completion.

"Any recounting of my personal history is unnecessary, I believe. For whatever importance it carries, may I say that I was born on a farm in Wilmington township, graduated from New Wilmington high school and New Castle Business College.

"The only thing I can offer as qualifications to be county treasurer is the fact that I have been an accountant most of my adult life, and I have had experience in the office. As a taxpayer you have a right to know that your treasurer is qualified to receive and disperse money accurately.

"I ask the votes of Republicans on September 9."

Pennsy To X-Ray Metal Equipment To Insure Safety

New Laboratory At Altoona Probes Metals To Bare Defects, Imperfections

A new X-Ray Laboratory embodying the most modern techniques for examining steel, aluminum, brass and other metals used in rails, locomotives, cars and other equipment to assure increased safety of railroad operation was announced by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Railroad officials said that rapid wartime technical progress in the field of radiographic (X-Ray) testing of metals for internal flaws has been utilized by the Pennsylvania Railroad in developing the new laboratory and its techniques.

In the new X-Ray plant just opened at Altoona, Pa., as an addition to the Pennsylvania Railroad Test Department, photographs are taken through metals to provide assurance against such internal defects as concealed cracks, imperfectly welded joints, cavities due to shrinkage of metal during cooling, and the like.

To use this new technique, the Pennsylvania Railroad has secured a 250,000 volt mobile X-Ray machine mounted on automobile wheels so that it may be used either in the specially constructed laboratory building, or, when some very large object such as a locomotive boiler is to be examined, in the adjacent construction and repair shops of the railroad's Altoona works. It can examine the internal structure of metals as much as three inches thick.

During the war years, radiographic testing of metals used in airplanes, tanks, gun mounts, naval landing craft and other military equipment subjected to severe shocks was developed to a high degree of accuracy and effectiveness. Internal flaws which could have caused failures in action were thus discovered and remedied.

SEEKS REASONS FOR P. O. NAMES

PORTLAND, Ore. — (INS) — A tireless historian is only 450 short of his goal in his hobby of digging up reasons for names of 2200 post-offices in Oregon.

He still has no historical proof for such names as Mirth, Kist, Idea, Egypt or Ragie—which is "cigar" spelled backwards.

Indians Said "Plush"

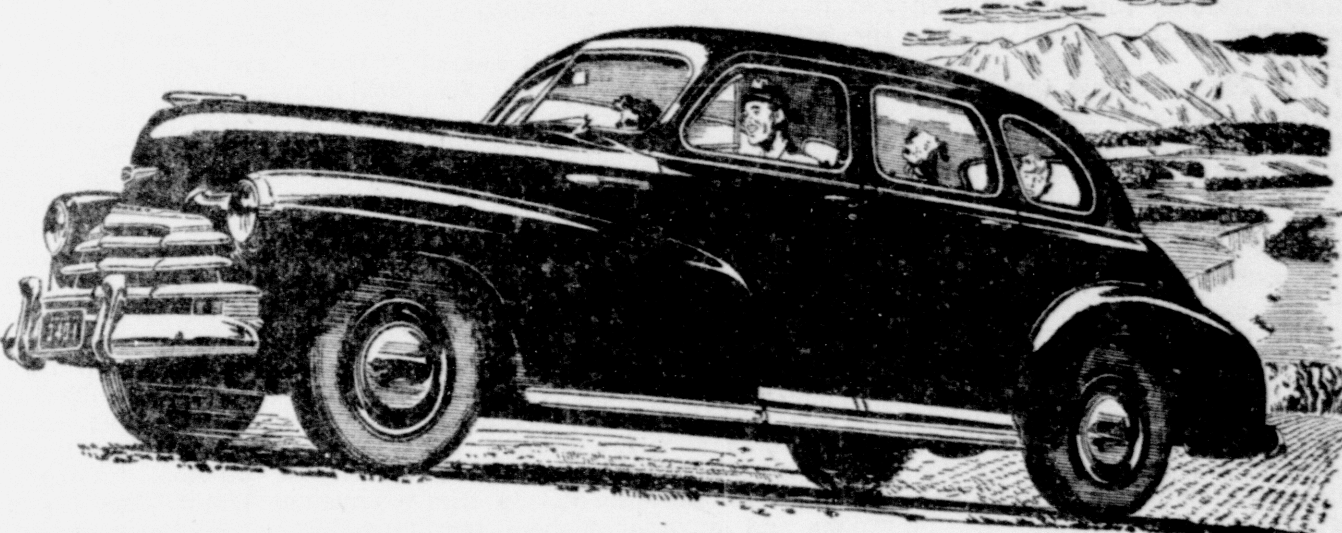

The historian takes the name "Plush" for example and by careful research learns from old newspapers or records in Lake County that some Indians got into a poker game with white men and bumped into a flush. "Plush" was as close as they could get to it.

Closure of some postoffices such as Montezuma, Bar, and Lonely many years ago makes more difficult the task of tracing their origins.

Hershey Dairy Queen's Reign Has Only Begun

Indications Point To State
Winner Being Busy For Sometime Yet

OTHER FARM NEWS FROM HARRISBURG

HARRISBURG, July 30.—(INS)—Charlotte Stine, 16-year-old Pennsylvania dairy queen, probably never dreamed her reign would last so long—but it's only begun.

The young Hershey girl last week headed a delegation of state dairymen on a whirlwind visit to Washington, where they treated each of the nation's congressmen to a plate of Pennsylvania-made ice cream and a candy bar.

They also stopped at the White House and chatted with Matthew J. Connally, secretary to President Truman and presented an ice cream cake to Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

The party was comprised of Miss Stine, Lewis A. Zimmerman, world's champion dairymen, of New Mahoning, Anthony Ryder, president of the Pennsylvania Milk Dealers Association, Benjamin H. Wolfe, treasurer, Willis P. Daniels, chief counsel, and John A. Smith, secretary of the State Production and Marketing Committee.

Smith, whose organization sponsored the dairy queen contest and the trip to Washington, termed both events a "huge success."

He said however, that the dairy queen's reign still wasn't near the end. She has been invited to appear in Western Pennsylvania, Wheeling, W. Va., and Scranton for personal appearances.

Smith added that his office is also busy preparing plans to have Miss Stine appear at some of the larger county fairs this fall throughout the state.

Excessive rainfall during the first half of July retarded growth of most summer vegetables and delayed cultivation, according to the State Department of Agriculture. The department reported that rainfall averaged more than two-fifths above normal for the period. Erie county, which was abnormally dry during the period suddenly received more than its share of rain at once, according to reports. July 22 the county was drenched with nine inches of rainfall in a six-hour period.

Pennsylvania's 1947 corn crop was estimated at 55,432,000 bushels, a drop of nearly four million bushels under last year's crop. A Federal-State survey blamed delay in planting due to wet weather.

The Agriculture Department estimated that the 1947 apple crop will be about 30 per cent below the 1946 yield because of frost and poor pollination weather at blossom time.

Baseball Field 'Squatter' Uses Gun To End Game

YORK, Pa., July 30.—(INS)—Charles King, of nearby Manchester township, isn't much of a baseball fan.

The 49-year-old man, who built a wooden shack in left field of the township's baseball diamond, last night broke up a game in a highly unorthodox, but most effective manner—with bullets.

Approximately 300 fans turned out to watch two industrial teams meet in a league game. Witnesses said the first batter hit to left field—but the fielder was repulsed by a rifle shot from King's shack.

Angered, the player deliberately continued to hit to left field. King continued to send bullets whizzing harmlessly by the fielders.

Finally exasperated when one bullet struck the ground near spectators, players and fans stormed King's shack. A shotgun blast sent them scurrying to safety, however.

Police were called and King gave himself up. He was placed in York county jail under $5,000 bail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Tennessee Home To Seminary
In Ft. Worth

BRUNSWICK, Tenn., (INS)—The Rev. J. E. Williams, pastor of the Brunswick Baptist church, is a commuter extraordinary.

He has traveled 66,852 miles in the past three years, to and from his church.

The Rev. Williams is a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Texas. He makes the 1,238-mile round trip between Fort Worth and Brunswick each week-end.

Not All-Year Round

This doesn't go on all-year round, the indefatigable minister admits. He studies at the seminary only one term at a time. He explained:

"I went to the seminary during the summer terms of 1943, 1944, and 1945. Last year and this, I elected to study in the spring-semester."

The minister's weekly itinerary is staggering. Each Friday he leaves Fort Worth at 5 p. m. arriving in Memphis at 6:50 a. m. Saturday. He goes to the homes of his good friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jackson, where he has breakfast and picks up his round trip ticket for the next week-end.

To Summer, Highland, Brunswick

He boards a street car and rides to Summer. There he gets off, walks to Highland and then hitchhikes to Brunswick.

He then delivers a sermon. On Saturday, he manages to visit his congregation. On Sunday night, a member of his flock drives him to Memphis where he boards the train for Fort Worth and another week of study.

Rev. Williams is studying for his masters degree in both religious education and divinity. His church doesn't suffer from inattention because of the minister's crowded schedule. Total contributions from his congregation have progressed from less than $1,000 to almost $7,000 a year since he became pastor three years ago.

To fill in his "spare time," the Rev. Williams makes plans for his trip to Copenhagen, Denmark where he will attend the Baptist World Congress.

Final Hearing In Local Bus Rates Is Set For Today

HARRISBURG, July 30.—(INS)—The Public Utility Commission today was scheduled to hold the final hearing in its three-year-old investigation of the reasonableness of rates charged by the Shenango Valley Transportation Co., of New Castle.

Commission Counsel Ray H. Pope, Jr., said Edward A. Roberts, of New York, was slated for cross-examination on a reproduction cost estimate reportedly prepared by the company for the bus firm.

The three-day hearing was recessed yesterday while the commission awaited the recall of Roberts from Nova Scotia, where he was vacationing.

STEEL PRICES TO BE RAISED

NEW YORK, July 30.—(INS)—United States Steel Corp., served notice today that, effective Aug. 1, it is increasing the price of its finished steel products by five dollars a ton.

U. S. Steel's announcement signaled the failure of President Truman's recent plan to the coal and steel industries to hold the price line following settlement of the coal wage dispute which awarded John L. Lewis' miners substantial increases.

"Big Steel" was the last of the important steel companies to announce price hikes, which were initiated last Friday by the American Rolling Mill. The price advances ranged from five to ten dollars a ton.

Bethlehem Steel, second largest factor in the industry, shortly before the U. S. Steel action announced a similar price increase.

The average length of life for white women in the United States has reached the remarkably high figure of 69.5 years.

44 ways To get "Something for Nothing"

The railroads have received 44 "rules" demands from the leaders of the operating unions, representing engineers, firemen, conductors, trainmen and switchmen. They say they are seeking only changes in working conditions—NOT a wage increase.

More Money For Less Work

But what kind of rules are being asked for? Twenty-eight of them would compel railroads to pay more money for the same, or less work; 7 would require additional and unnecessary men to do the same work; the rest would bring about changes in operating practices at increased cost.

For Instance:

The Union leaders demand additional train and engine crews on Diesel-powered trains—one full crew for every power unit in the locomotive. A freight train hauled by a 4-unit Diesel would have to carry 4 engineers, 4 firemen, 4 conductors, and at least 8 brakemen, or a total of 20 men instead of 5.

"Made Work"—Sheer Waste

The Union leaders demand that full-length freight trains be cut to about half their length, even though such trains are most efficient for low-cost service to you. This rule would call for twice as many locomotives, would double the number of trains, and make accidents more likely.

Additional equipment, yards, and other facilities required to take care of these short trains would cost hundreds of millions. What the Union leaders really want is to make more jobs.

The Union leaders demand that when a crew in one class of service perform incidental service of another class, they will be paid not less than a day's pay for each class, even though all service is performed

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, July 30.—(INS)—When Kay Norton lets down her long yellow hair, you really get an earful.

A New York radio actress, Kay has been in Hollywood a month, but she's yet to meet a man for whom she could arouse the slightest romantic interest.

Said Kay: "I like the New York men better. They have a wider range of interest than the men I've met out here. 'Before I could get romantically interested in a man, he'd have to stimulate me mentally.'"

"I haven't met a man like that yet."

Kay has made her movie debut in a small role in M-G-M's "On An Island With You," but, strange as it may seem, she isn't looking forward to an acting career.

"I'd rather be on the other side of the business," she said, "like the production end. It would be nice to be assistant to a producer, or something like that."

"It would be much more interesting. But, I don't know whether I'll get anywhere with that idea."

A Million Dollars to Relieve Piles

It is estimated that over a million dollars annually is spent for various remedies for relieving piles. Yet any druggist will tell you that soothing, cooling, astringent Peterson's Ointment will allay pile torture in a few minutes. 35c box 60c in tube with applicator. Peterson's Ointment brings prompt, joyful relief from itching. Money back if not delighted.

as a part of the same day's work. The crew would get at least two days' pay for one day's work.

The Union leaders demand that the present basic day for passenger conductors and trainmen be reduced from 150 to 100 miles, which would have the effect of increasing their pay 50%. Such a run often takes only two or three hours!

You Can't Afford This Waste

Demands like these are against the interests of the whole American people, who depend on railroad service for nearly everything they eat, wear and use.

These rules would cost A BILLION DOLLARS annually—a gigantic waste which neither the railroads nor the country can afford.

Railroad workers are good citizens and good employees, with pride in their calling. Their record during the war was outstanding. We do not believe they fully understand the "featherbed" rules which the Union leaders are demanding. We do not believe they understand the harmful results which these rules would have to the railroad industry, to the millions of men and women dependent on railroads for their livelihood, and to the shipping and consuming public.

The great strength of America is in production—an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

For only through greater production can we hope to stop the steady upward surge of living costs.

Surely, if ever there was a time in our history when we needed to work, not waste, this is it.

Waynesburg Gets Annual Rain

WAYNESBURG, Pa., July 30.—(INS)—Because it rained in Waynesburg late last night, Comedian Bob Hope owes Attorney Elmer Daily a hat today. And to make the matter more interesting, Hope has to produce one of the toppers that previously adorned Bing Crosby's head.

Rain on July 29 is a tradition in Waynesburg, and each year Attorney Daily, the weather recorder who inherited the task from his father, bets a hat with some prominent person that the tradition will be preserved.

It has rained on this little southwestern Pennsylvania community on July 29 for 69 of the last 72 years. For a long while yesterday, Daily was a worried man, but at 9:50 p. m. a light sprinkle came down—enough to save the tradition. Hope, when he made the bet, wouldn't put one of his own hats on the line. He bet Crosby's. Now all he has to do is produce it.

Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson, and George Washington comprised the trio which was called "The tongue, the pen, and the sword of the American Revolution."

Bessemer Advances To Semi-Finals In State Tournament

Joe Pepe Plasters 9 To 0 Shutout On New Kensington, Allows Three Hits

Claridge Defeats Scottdale 8-5, Jay-Bees Play Wilkes-Barre Thursday

There was solid rejoicing in the Bessemer community today over the luster given the New Kensington Aluminum Local 302 club by the Bessemerites last night at Flaherty Field, as the team won the first round of the state tournament. Joe Pepe, pitcher, was the star, plastering New Kensington 9 to 0 in a shutout. He allowed only three hits and struck out 11 batters.

As a result of their stunning victory the Bessemer team advances to the semi-finals of the National Baseball Congress State tournament, and will probably draw Pittston for their next opponent.

In the losing bracket last night Claridge hammered the Scottdales for an 8 to 5 win to remain in the running and put the Scottdales out of commission.

Good Games Tonight
Tonight the tournament offering will have Duquesne Zemps playing the Nemacolin in the first game at 6:30 o'clock. The Dukes bowed to Ford City in their first appearance, and Nemacolin after defeating Tarentum, lost to Bessemer. The Dukes should take this one.

In the night-cap contest this evening the Tarentum Swirlings tangle with the Derry Vets, both teams have been defeated previously—Tarentum by Nemacolin and Derry by Wilkes-Barre. Tarentum should take this one.

Jay-Bees Vs. Wilkes-Barre
Thursday the Johnson Bronze Jay-Bees will play Wilkes-Barre in the second game, in a quarter-final battle, and in the first game of the Duquesne-Nemacolin game at 6:30 o'clock.

Pens will see some good games from here in, it was indicated, with plenty riding on every pitch.

Easy For Claridge
Claridge uncorked a big first inning last night in the opening game scoring six runs and that was the finish for Scottdale as the Fayette County entry couldn't catch their breath or bat in enough runs to overtake the Claridgeans. The score was 8 to 5. Joe Burzio, a husky youngster did the Claridge hurling, turned in a swell job after getting his bearings and gave eight hits but kept them scattered.

Scottdale used three pitchers, none of them were hit very hard. Claridge having but seven hits, but they came at opportune moments. Heavy hitters in the game were "Tar" O'nder, Garrity, Smith, Firlik, Claravol and Godard.

Terrific Hitting
The Jim Martinless Bessemer (Jim's son was getting married last night) after long to the Ellwood Moose in a county loop game at Ellwood City, 4 to 2, stormed into Flaherty Field full of pep and vigor and with their big bats playing a merry tattoo on the offerings of Black went to work in the first inning and scored two runs, on hits by Kurler, Anderson and Johnson and were helped by a walk and an error. But for a lapse on the base having two men trapped, Bessemer would have had a bigger first inning lead.

Three more runs were shoved over by the Cement workers in the fourth inning, on three hits, a wild pitch, and a wild heave by the shortstop. Meantime the New Kensingtons were having a hard time to find the offerings of the veteran Pepe.

After Bessemer had scored a lone

Brooklyn Bums Now Eight Games Ahead, Yanks Idle, Red Sox Lose

BY LOU GARAVANTE
NEW YORK, July 30.—A cocky, scrappy squad of "city slickers," blessed with a modicum of talent and generous portion of that intangible "spirit," rejoiced in triumph today, eight full lengths ahead of a slightly bedraggled "yacht club" crew of Missouri Redbirds.

The bewildering, spectacular Brooklyn Dodgers, 1947's team of destiny, continued their triumphant procession through the west last night with a gaudy three-hit 4 to 0 conquest over the world champion St. Louis Cardinals.

Giants Top Reds
The other two first division clubs snapped a tie for third place in the National league. The home-run conscious New York Giants augmented their four base blasting with superlative hurling to edge the Cincinnati Reds 2 to 1 behind the six-hit twirling of Larry Jansen.

The Boston Braves dropped to fourth place, submitting to the forkball wizardry of pudgy Tiny Bonham of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bonham chalked up his ninth win by besting Bill Voiselle and three other Brave pitchers, 6 to 5.

"Four" was the magic number for the Chicago Cubs yesterday. The little Bruins got four walks and four hits against four Philadelphia Philly pitchers to score five runs in Philly seventh for a 5 to 4 victory.

Feller Beats Sox
In the American league, the Boston Red Sox dropped another half game behind the pace-setting New York Yankees as Bullet Bob Feller fastballed his way to victory No. 13, 5 to 1. The Red Sox, who now are 10½ games off the pace.

The Philadelphia Athletics, holding tenaciously to fourth place erupted for a five run fourth inning against the Chicago White Sox to win 5 to 2. Phil Marchiondo pitched two-hit ball after the two-run first inning to score his 12th 1947 triumph.

Sad Sam Zolack, a lean, doe-eyed left-hander for the St. Louis Browns scattered seven Senator hits to pitch the tail-end Brownsies to an 8 to 2 victory over the men from the city of legislation and litigation.

Paul McGaffie Sr. Makes Hole-In-One In League Match
Paul C. McGaffie, Sr., veteran local golfer, scored his first hole-in-one (some golfers have made more than one) while playing in a Johnson Bronze Night Turn League match, Tuesday morning, at the beautiful Sylvan Heights course.

McGaffie scored his ace on the 154-yard No. 5 hole, when he laid a No. 4 iron shot true to the pin. Playing with Paul were David J. Minnick, Jesse Dufford, Jr., and James Snyder.

Dave Minnick's team won the second half championship in the Jay-Bee night turn league his team scoring 34 points, while George Wood's team finished second with 27½. "Skip" Haycock's team was third with 24, and Paul McGaffie's team, despite his ace, only had 13½ points for the season.

The winning team consisted of Capt. Dave Minnick, Jim Snyder, Gabby Kendra, and Bill Thompson. Sammie Haycock, Jr., had low score of the day with a one-over-par round of 37. The winners of the blind bogie were Dave Minnick and Sam Haycock, with net scores of 34.

McCready's One-Hitter Keeps Wampum In Front

BESSEMER COOLED BY MOOSE, 4 TO 2
ELLWOOD CITY, July 30.—Ellwood Moose continued their mastery over Bessemer here last night as they nipped the Cementers, 4-2, to cling tightly to second place in the standings.

Ralph Ferrante did the chucking for six frames for the winners, with Norm Mohr coming to the hill for the final session. Billy Peltz was on the firing line for the Cementers, being solved for six blows and showing sporadic wildness in walking six men.

Legion Flinger
BLANKS TOPS, 2-0
WAMPUM, July 30.—A single by Catcher M. Ceratti in the seventh and final inning here last night was the only hit given up by Jim McCready as the red-hot Wampum Legion won via the shutout route, 2-0.

Big Jim had perfect control, whiffing six and not issuing any walks. Ceratti was the only man to reach first in a near-perfect hurling masterpiece.

The loop-leaders collected five safeties off the slants of Bob Cieratti and scored their two tallies in the third.

YOUNGSTOWN, July 30.—Bobby Bell, holder of the world's amateur bantamweight championship, is training for his New Castle, August 8 bout with Ted Fitzpaddock, Warren, who is the featherweight junior champion. Dick Mette, former featherweight, is training Bell, who is one of the amateur ring's most pleasant performers.

Boxes With Sabotin
WARREN, July 30.—Boxing five rounds daily with Lallo Sabotin, a much heavier sparring mate, Ted Fitzpaddock, junior 126-pound king, is conditioning for his bout with World Champion Bantamweight Bobby Bell at New Castle, August 8. Ted, who is a southpaw, expects to baffle aggressive Bobby with his elusiveness and science.

GAME ENDS IN DISPUTE
EDENBURG, July 30.—Edenburg and Hillsville got into a verbal wrangle here last night and the game was called in the fifth inning with Hillsville out front, 7-3.

Argument arose when Jess Exposito of the Tigers hit a long ball which Mike Caldarraro chased to deeper center field. Since the Hiller outfielder had to make a circus catch of the ball, Edenburg doubled off a hit and caught on the fly and a hubbub arose.

After long and heated bickering the contest was called off.

Legion Team Is Eliminated In State Tourney

Lose Two Contests To Strong All-quippa Team, Runners Up For State Title Last Year
After having successfully defeated the Ellwood City and Butler Junior American Legion teams in the tri-county playoffs the New Castle Legion team travelled down the valley Sunday afternoon only to be eliminated from further competition in the Western Penna. American Legion playoffs by dropping their second straight game to the alert Legion team of Alliquippa by the score of 7 to 4.

Saturday evening, at Washington High field, the visitors were victorious in the first encounter by a 6 to 1 score, the game being highlighted by a fourth inning four run homer by Ciccone of Alliquippa. Bob Sessions, of New Castle, produced the only run of the game for the losers when he poled out a home run in the first inning with no one on base.

At Alliquippa the hosts built up a 7 to 0 lead in the first few innings of play, as a result of costly errors, and it wasn't until the late innings that our boys bunched enough hits together to register four runs and oust the Alliquippa team ten to six. Heavy hitting being done by Black, Sessions, and Kerr of New Castle.

There were large attendances at both games and the series was a successful one from the standpoint of seeing two good young American Legion teams in action.

HOUSTON PITCHES FOUR-HIT VICTORY

Even the veteran "Peck" Houston has caught the spirit of the Universal Pottery sensational winning streak as last night the fire-ball artist of yester-years limited the West Side Tigers to four-hits, and beat them 3 to 1 for the 23rd straight win. The Dukes have won in straight the Pottery league and an all-time city league consecutive record. Houston even helped his own cause with a triple. Steve Pyle was the victim, last night of a nine-hit attack led by Pete Razzano, John Razzano and Steve Hutneck. Both sides played sparkling ball in the field.

Award Case To Get Into Court

County Commissioners To Combat Award Of Arbitrators In Leivo Case

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Dissatisfied with the award of the arbitrators named to hear the case of Matthew Leivo Sons against the county, the county commissioners said today they will throw the case into the Court of Common Pleas, where it will be tried.

The case is that in which the commissioners refused to pay for some extra work upon the West Washington street bridge. The plaintiff elected to have the case heard by a board of arbitrators and this board awarded the Leivo company $9,272, with interest from the date of the completion of the work in 1945.

As soon as the appeal can be prepared by County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., the case will be listed for trial. In the mean time the compensation of the arbitrators has not been settled.

Under the law providing for arbitrators, they were allowed $1 per day for compensation. This was back in early nineteenth century.

One of the arbitrators, Joseph B. Leyde says he will agree to the one dollar per day if it is on the basis of purchasing power one dollar was in 1816. In those days he claims you would buy sixteen chickens for a dollar. He is willing to settle in chickens.

GOLD STAR INFORMATION

A. Lewis Conn, who has charge of veterans' work for the county said today that on August 14, a representative of the Quartermaster General's department of the Army will be here to enlighten survivors of men killed in the war as to disposition of the remains.

A meeting has been called for 3 p. m. in Court Room Number One to which are invited all next of kin of military men killed in World War Two. The representative will show pictures and speak on the matter of returning bodies to this country in order to arrive at final disposition.

The meeting is sponsored by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Red Cross, Department of Veterans Affairs, New Castle Veterans' Advisory Council and the Veterans' Administration.

M. L. & H. Co. Ready To Enter Sixth Annual 'No Accident' Drive

Employees of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co. will enter their sixth annual "No Accident" safety campaign on Friday. They have lost fewer hours from work due to disabling injuries in the first six months of this year as compared to the same period of 1946.

Charles E. Bennett, president of the company, opened the August program with a reminder to all gas company employees. The campaign consists of employee group meetings, educational messages, and special conferences.

W. H. Adams, safety director of the Pittsburgh Group of Columbia System gas companies, is in general charge of the accident reduction drive which has as its slogan, "Everyone Wins In August."

Nick names in the navy are common, but rarely is an admiral known chiefly by such a name. Rear Admiral Joseph James Clark, however, was asked once by the Secretary of the Navy, at a Press Conference, what his initials were, as he knew him only as "Jockey" Clark.

Congressmen Will Probe Economic Conditions Abroad

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(INS)—Speaker Martin (R) Mass., has announced appointment of a special 19-member house committee which will investigate economic conditions abroad.

Martin named as chairman of the new group Rep. Eaton (R) N. J., foreign affairs committee chairman. Rep. Herter (R) Mass., was also appointed and is expected to be chosen vice chairman. Herter sponsored the resolution creating the committee.

Sixteen regular house committees are represented on the new group, including four from the foreign affairs committee, which will sail Aug. 27, for Europe and spend five weeks abroad. The committee will report to the house when congress reconvenes in special session this fall or at the second regular session Jan. 6.

Upon its decision may hang the fate of the Marshall plan for European economic rehabilitation, because financial aid to implement the program must be initiated in the house.

Martin revealed that the group will also study conditions in the Far East.

POINTERS FOR PICKING RECIPES

Do you know a good recipe when you meet one? If you don't recognize one, here are some pointers to help you identify it.

First, what type of recipe is it? Look for master recipes that give you the pattern for preparing basic types of foods—baking powder biscuits, muffins, ice cream, molded gelatin, and so on down the list. The look for the same pattern repeated in the scores of recipes which are simple variations of basic formulas.

Second, what are the ingredients and how are they listed? Recipes that call for too many ingredients and list them in the order of use, help you assemble and use materials accurately. Ingredients for toppings, frosting, garnishes should be listed separately at the end of the main recipe.

The third point is the directions, are they adequate? You ought to pick recipes that give complete step-by-step directions, given in simple language.

And four, how accurately are the measurements defined? Select recipes giving exact amounts. Shun those with indefinite directions like "butter the size of a walnut".

Five, the kind of saucepan or roaster, the size of muffin or cake tins or gelatin mold, should always be specified.

Six, good recipes give specific top-stove, oven, or refrigerator directions. Length of cooking, baking, roasting, or freezing time should be specified if the recipe is to be called a good one.

Seventh and last point—the number of servings or quantity yield, should be included. This is a must and your final guide in selecting a recipe suited to your needs.

Now after you've recognized a good recipe, you'll want to get the best results you can when you use it. Here are several tips: check supplies before you start to see that you have all ingredients. . . don't try to change the size of the recipe. . . increasing or decreasing is a job for experts. Measure accurately—use a standard measuring cup. Don't substitute ingredients and use the brands of ingredients specified in the recipe. Other brands may not always give equally good results.
